The American Library in Paris
ANNUAL REPORT
2011

From the Chairman and the Director

The Library experienced its first significant renovation and rearrangement of spaces in many decades, leading to a new children’s space and teen mezzanine; a glass-walled conference room for book groups, study sessions, and other Library activities; a new reference area and collections office; an expanded reading room and program space; a reoriented circulation desk; and refurbished staff offices. All this was thanks to an anonymous gift from an individual donor, who sets an example of generosity and commitment that is followed by increasing numbers of Library members and supporters who donate annually to keep the institution strong. In 2011 the Library rekindled an old tradition by holding a cocktail for supporters in New York. The Second Century campaign to solidify the Library’s financial foundations showed gains in a difficult economic climate, while the Library continued to grow in dynamism, visibility, and usefulness to a growing membership.

The publication of this annual report at the June 2012 annual meeting of the Library also marks the conclusion of William’s service on the Board of Trustees, the last five years as chairman. He will continue to lead the Library’s major gifts campaign for the Second Century as a member of the American Library in Paris USA Foundation.
