THE AMERICAN LIBRARY IN PARIS

2020 Book Award Submissions

Six titles have been selected as finalists for the 2020 American Library in Paris Book Award:

Bill Buford. Dirt: Adventures in Lyon as a Chef in Training, Father, and Sleuth Looking for the Secret of French Cooking (Alfred A. Knopf US/Jonathan Cape UK)

James Gardner. The Louvre: The Many Lives of the World's Most Famous Museum (Atlantic Monthly Press)

Caitlin Horrocks. The Vexations: A Novel (Little, Brown and Company)

Rachel Mesch. Before Trans: Three Gender Stories From Nineteenth-Century France (Stanford University Press)

Maggie Paxson. The Plateau (Riverhead Books)

Maurice Samuels. The Betrayal of the Duchess: The Scandal that Unmade the Bourbon Monarchy and Made France Modern (Basic Books)

The Library's annual Book Award recognizes the most distinguished book of the year, written and published in English, about France or the French. Seventy-one titles were submitted for consideration by authors, publishers, and others across the English-speaking world. All the submissions for the 2020 Book Award are listed in these pages and are in the Library's circulating collection, available for checkout by members.

The winning title will be selected by an independent jury, this year consisting of Ethan Katz (jury chair), Rachel Donadio, and Jake Lamar and will be announced in November. An invitation-only ceremony is planned for January 2021.

The Book Award is supported by generous funding from the Florence Gould Foundation. If you are interested in becoming a patron of the Book Award ceremony, or have questions about the prize, please write the Book Award administrator, Charles Trueheart, at bookaward@americanlibraryinparis.org.
