Step 4. Type your search terms in the search box and click search to continue. You also have the option to create an alert about the search terms you use. This allows you to be alerted about the latest articles that have been added to the database.

The screenshot shows the EBSCOhost search results page. The search term 'european migration crisis' is entered in the search bar. The results are displayed in a list format. The first result is titled '1. Gender and Age in the Construction of Male Youth in the European Migration "Crisis".' and is from the journal 'Signs: Journal of Women in Culture & Society'. The second result is titled '2. PEOPLE IN MOTION -THE EUROPEAN MIGRATION CRISIS.' and is from the journal 'Geodade'. The left sidebar shows the 'Refine Results' section with options to limit the search by 'Full Text', 'Peer Reviewed', and 'Image Quick View'. The 'Publication Date' range is set from 1894 to 2019. The 'Source Types' section shows 'All Results' selected, with counts for Newspapers (128), Magazines (68), and Academic Journals (32).

Step 5. Review your search results and determine if you need to modify your search.

This close-up view of the 'Refine Results' sidebar highlights the 'Limit To' section. A red arrow points to the 'Full Text' checkbox, which is currently unchecked. Other options in this section include 'Peer Reviewed' and 'Image Quick View'. Below this, the 'Publication Date' range is shown as 1894 to 2019. The 'Source Types' section shows 'All Results' selected, with counts for Newspapers (128), Magazines (68), and Academic Journals (32).

Step 6. If you need to refine your search use the tools on the side to help modify your search results to get the results that better match what you are looking for. One of the ways to that is to click on full text to get articles that are available to download immediately. You can also click peer reviewed articles which are articles that have been reviewed by scholars in the field you are searching.
