

Evenings with Gardens: Kerdalo

Where the botanical and the romantic intersect

On Wednesday 14 March at 19h30 -- tomorrow -- join Isabelle Vaughan, owner of les Jardins de Kerdalo since 1997, as she discusses the grounds that her father began to restore in 1965 in this illustrated presentation.

Isabelle Vaughan presides over Kerdalo, the garden created by her father, Peter Wollensky. Composed of nine thousand plant varieties and inspired by Italian and Chinese gardens, Kerdalo is a lush, diverse world of its own. The garden's curated beauty has distinguished it as a 'Jardin Remarquable.' It has also been registered under l'Inventaire des Monuments Historiques.
