2023 Gala Honoree: Pulitzer Prize winner Andrew Sean Greer

“Inspired, lyrical . . . Mr. Greer’s considerable gifts as a storyteller ascend to the heights of masters like Marilynne Robinson and William Trevor. . . [He] seamlessly choreographs an intricate narrative that speaks authentically to the longings and desires of his characters.”

The Library is proud to share the news that Pulitzer Prize-winning novelist Andrew Sean Greer will be the 2023 Annual Gala honoree. He is the author of seven works of fiction, including the bestsellers The Confessions of Max Tivoli and Less; The Story of a Marriage; and The Impossible Lives of Greta Wells. He edited the anthology The Best American Short Stories 2022. All of these books are in the Library's collection and available for checkout.

Greer has taught at a number of universities, including the Iowa Writers Workshop, been a TODAY show pick, a New York Public Library Cullman Center Fellow, a judge for the National Book Award, and a winner of the California Book Award and the New York Public Library Young Lions Award. He is the recipient of a NEA grant, a Guggenheim Fellowship, and the 2018 Pulitzer Prize for Fiction. His new book, Less is Lost (Little Brown, September 20, 2022) is a sequel to Less. Greer lives in San Francisco and Milan.

The Annual Gala is the Library's most important fundraising event of the year. When you support our appeals for charitable donations and fundraising events, you make everything that we do possible. Thank you for your continuing support, and we hope to see you at the Gala on 1 June.
