Vision 2027: What's New

Major Upgrade of our Online Research Platform EBSCOhost

EBSCOhost just got better! With a sleek new design, personalizable dashboards, and enhanced citing tools, this online research platform is now even easier to navigate.

Library members enjoy free access to EBSCOhost's vast collection of databases, e-books, and journals. Ask at Member Services for help getting started.

Join a Library Book Group this Winter

Spots are filling quickly for our Book Groups, so sign up soon. Among the new groups launching this season include:

America Today

Wednesdays, 16h00—17h30

Explore contemporary American political culture through books focusing on underreported social events. Led by Pamela Combastet and Beth Wintersteen.

The Art of Remembering: Paris

Saturdays, 17h00—18h30

From Montmartre's wild nightlife to the vibrant underbelly of Montparnasse, this book group fetes American (women) writers, creatives and glitterati who have contributed to interwar literary life in Paris. Led by Precious Brown.

For detailed information about all Library book groups, as well as instructions on how to register, please visit the Library's website.

If you are interested in starting your own book group, please contact bookgroups@americanlibraryinparis.org to pitch your idea.

History Tours

Our popular, expert-led History Tours are back—and they're free for everyone! Open to the public, these tours offer a captivating journey through the Library's 105-year history. Discover the librarians who served WWI troops, the Lost Generation writers who found inspiration in our stacks, and the brave staff who ensured the Library stayed open during WWII. Don't miss this opportunity to connect with history in a truly unique setting. The next tour is this Friday, 24 January at 11h00.

Vote for Your Favorite Picture Book!

Since 1938, the Caldecott Medal has honored the "most distinguished American picture book for children," making it one of the most prestigious awards in children's literature. Come in-person to the Children's Library to see our curated selection of 2024 picture books and vote for your favorite. We will announce the winning book on 25 January at 11h00 at our Mock Caldecott Celebration.
